Hyperion. The New Haven public had the opportunity last night of witnessing a real English musical burlesque, "A Galety Girl," and judging by the big applause it received was approved. The burlesque is in two acts and is full of many pleasing songs. The plot is based upon the predilection of her majesty's rank and file, known commonly by the generic name of "Tommy Atkins," for the fascinating sprites of the Galety theater. The leading male characters are officers in English regiments, augmented by a judge of the divorce court and an honorary physician, and against the wiles of the fin de slecie dancers are waged the attractions of young la dies of noble family. Needless to say, footlights, and any social question as to the eligibility of a skirt dancer to the hand of a dashing guardsman is disposed of summarily in a most excellent manner. The chorus is strong and the comedy parts are played by competent comedians. The principal numbers include "Tommy Atkins" and a very pleasing trio between Mr. Rawlins Mr. Percy Marshal and Miss Louise Jomersal, and a duet between Mr. Raw lins and Miss Sidney. Some of the dan-cing was also of a very good quality, notably that of the Misses Fraser and

Miss Maud Percy. W. H. Rawlins as "Dr. Montague Brierly" is an entertaining comedian, and is particularly amusing in his oc-centric dancing. Percy Marshall as "Sir Lewis Grey" and W. J. Manning as "Major Barolay" complete the trio of comedy roles very acceptably. Mr. Langley sang several selections very acceptably. Miss Winifred Dennis as "Lady Virginia," Miss Ethel Sidney as "Rose Brierly," Miss Martine as "Nina" and Bert Haslem as "Bobbie Rivers" are all well equipped, from a musical point of view, and the minor parts are cast in good hands. There will be a special matinee to-day and a performance this evening. All in all, it is an up-to-date musical comedy and judging by the big sale of seats there will be large nudiences at both performances.

To-morrow evening "A Black Sheep," heralded as the brightest and most laughable of all the many skits from the pen of that clever playwright, Charles Hoyt, and flushed with its sucessful run of twelve weeks at the Park theater, Boston, will be presented for the first time in this city, with its great cast and gorgeous scenic effects. Sale of seats now open.

Grand Opera House. An immense audience was present to witness the opening performance of a three nights' engagement of the "Black Crook" at the Grand last evening. This great spectacular success was presented by an exceptionally good company, making the evening an enjoyable one.

The scenic effects are very fine. Up-to-date specialties have been in-reduced beside novelties in the way of dancing and ballets. The mechanical effects are good and the scenery, espe-cially in the grand transformation scene The mechanical which closes the performance, is one of the foremost productions of its kind, and drew forth well merited applause The grand ballet, the "Birth of the Rainbow," introducing Mile. Craske, Leontine and Mile. Saracco in their solos, was warmly received, as was also the murch of the Amuzons.

In the third act there is an olio of specialties, all of which were received with foud applause.

"The Hickey Social Club," by coryphees was a success, as were the Rix fords in their acrobatic work. and Reno in their original comedy specialty, "The Tramp and the Swell," ed in pleasing all. In "Alladin Changes the great Opolo made a hit and was equal to his quick character changes. The performance will be given this and to-morrow evenings, with a matinee to-morrow afternoon, and will no doubt be witnessed by immense audi-

The Celtic humorist, John Kernell, comes next Monday evening, and presents for the first time in this city, his latest vehicle of fun entitled, "Mc-Fadden's Elopement." He is a graduate of the old school of mirth provokers, and is unapproachable in his line of work. Associated with him is a company of clever comedians and pretty girls. The attraction following "Mc-Fadden's Elopement" is the season's ensation, "On the Bowery," with Steve Brodie as the stellar attraction. The overwhelming success achieved by this company in this city early in the fall argues well for the return engagement next week.

Poli's Wonderland Theater,

M'lle Petrescu, the marvelous young voman who has succeeded in substitut ing hand for feet in the ordinary functions of the latter, excites immense in terest. The human frame has been a constructed by its divine architect that it would not seem possible to reverse nature's laws and put hands in the place of feet, as M'lle Petrescu does and yet that she is able to do it, and also to do many things on the hands that ordinary mortals cannot do on the feet, has been demonstrated to the en-tire satisfaction of the local medical fraternity. The sixty physicians who witnessed a private exhibition of the young woman's powers on Tuesday have acknowledged themselves as mys tified by the marvelous performances and many of them have sent personal letters to Mr. Poli and M'lle Petrescu declaring her powers to be absolutely phenomenal. There is a splendid vaude ville performance also at the Wonder
